1. Michelle Mohrmann opened the meeting with a prayer.
2. Michelle reviewed the budget year to date and announced we are at or below budget on all items.
3. Lynn Petrik and Celeste Scarborough are coordinating Young Authors' contest judging for this week (Nov 3) and are still in need of a few good women or men to help. Carl Anderson is the entertainment scheduled for November 17th reward party on Character Day.
4. The Uniform Resale will be held November 16 in the church parlor, coordinated by Mary Ellen Noth. Helpers are needed to set up at 8 am that day and will get first dibs on selection of items. Parker and spirit items only will be accepted. Mrs. Moss requested that the process be changed before the next sale to lighten the load on the office staff.
5. Teacher Appreciation Luncheon for 6-8th grades will be held November 14, coordinated by Becky Orick. Pok-E-Jos will be providing food and donations will be solicited rather than food prepared by volunteers.
6. AED funding was successful at the Fall Festival in the amount of $1364.51, plus $100 matching funds. The booster club will also be involved in fund raising for this very worthy cause.
7. A screen hedge of 126 10-gallon photinias and 66 5-gallon photinias will be planted by volunteer heroes along the perimeter of the future upper elementary playground November 18, coordinated by Lynn Petrik. Many, many hands will make light work 9 am until??
8. $5,521 was taken in by the Tommy Nelson take home book fair, 40% of which will go toward the library.
9. A new BCS-PTF webmaster is needed to replace Steve Hawthorne. Skills needed to perform this job will be posted on the website itself.
10. A new restaurant benefit schedule was unveiled by Michelle for the coming year.
